CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Friday, October 12th, 2007
Psychology Internship Fair (must be registered)
Livingston Campus Student Center
8:30am - 1:30pm

Monday, October 15th, 2007
Clinical Faculty Meeting
A302, 10:00 - 11:30am
Applied Department and School Psychology Program Faculty Meeting
A302, 2:00 - 4:00pm

Wednesday, October 17th, 2007
First Year School Students Meeting with Susan Forman
A340, 12:15 - 1:15pm

Wednesday, October 24th, 2007
Dissertation Defense, Corey Lee Fenstemacher
“The Experiences of Adult Only-Children at Work”
Chair: Karen Riggs Skean, PsyD
A302, 12:00 noon

Friday, October 26th, 2007
SPECIAL EVENT
21st Annual Diversity Recruitment Night
College Avenue Student Center, 4:45 - 7:00pm
GSAPP Faculty needed
See page 3 for details
MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

I am very pleased to announce that GSAPP Alumna Dr. Rosalind Dorlen is the winner of the Bloustein Award for Community Service. She receives it for her pro-bono work in a community health program focusing on Postpartum Depression awareness. This program ultimately led to a New Jersey first-of-its-kind law in the nation which requires health care professionals to screen mothers for Postpartum Depression. The award will be presented to Dr. Dorlen at the Meritorious Service Awards Dinner at Rutgers on Friday October 19th.

Roz is a 1977 graduate of the clinical program and the 1999 winner of the Peterson prize for her many community oriented preventive and ameliorative projects.

JOB POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Course Assistant

Dr. Cary Cherniss is looking for someone to serve as his course assistant in the Foundations -- Organizational course during the last 10 weeks of the Spring, 2008 term. The course will meet Wednesdays from 2:00 to 4:45 pm. For those interested in exploring this opportunity further, please contact Cary in person, by phone (732-445-2000 x102), or by email: cherniss@rci.rutgers.edu.

Supervising Pediatric Psychologist

The Dorothy B. Hersh Regional Child Protection Center at Saint Peters University Hospital in New Brunswick, NJ is looking for a Supervising Pediatric Psychologist.

Job Summary:

The Regional Child Protection Center is a program that provides a broad range of services related to the diagnosis and treatment of child abuse. The Supervising Psychologist provides direct services to the clients of the Child Protection Center via psychological/mental health assessments of parents, children, and alleged abusers in situations where there are concerns about physical, sexual and/or emotional maltreatment/neglect of children. Additional direct services can include: crisis intervention, expert testimony, consultation to CPC staff, department of pediatrics staff, teaching/training through in-service education for residents and other trainees, presentations at conferences and to community groups.

The Supervising Psychologist is also responsible for direct and indirect supervision of the other CPC psychologists who provide services. Supervision includes direct face to face contact, consultation on cases, reading each report prepared by other psychologist and cosigning of reports.

The Supervising Psychologist also provides consultation to the community served by the Child Protection Center. This includes consultation services to all State Division of Youth and Family Services (DYFS) offices served by our center, which include offices in Middlesex, Mercer, Monmouth, Ocean, Somerset, Union and Hunterdon Counties. In addition, consultation is offered to other social service agencies, schools, police, prosecutors, public defenders, multidisciplinary teams, and the judicial system.

As the region includes several counties across the State of New Jersey, the position may require some travel to other locations. Specifications are as follows: (1) Doctorate in child clinical, developmental, school or pediatric psychology (2) NJ License to practice independently held for a minimum of 2 years prior to beginning the position (3) 5 years of experience in the areas of assessment, child abuse (physical and/or sexual, as well as general maltreatment), treatment and consultation skills (4) Bilingual skills (Spanish) are desirable (5) Competitive salary and benefits. If interested, please contact: Linda Shaw, MD. Medical Director or Ray Wolfinger, JD Program Coordinator (732) 448-1000
21ST ANNUAL DIVERSITY RECRUITMENT NIGHT
There will be an Information Session for Admissions to the Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology (GSAPP) on Friday, October 26th, from 4:45 - 7:00pm in the Graduate Student Lounge at the College Avenue Student Center on Rutgers College Avenue Campus in New Brunswick, NJ. FREE food and refreshments. You must be registered for this event. Please go to: gsappweb.rutgers.edu and click on link on home page. We need faculty there!

LATINO PSYCHOLOGY CONFERENCE
The 8th Annual Latino psychology Conference will be held on November 16, 2007 at Montclair State University. For more information and to register on-line, go to www.lpanj.org

Keynote Presentation: Context and Connection - Diagnosis and Intervention in Context
Monica McGoldrick, LCSW PhD (h.c.) and Nydia Garcia-Preto, LCSW, ACSW, nationally known authors and family therapists are the presenters.

NJ OCF CONFERENCE
The NJ Affiliate of the Obsessive Compulsive Foundation will host it’s Eighth Annual Conference on the topic “OCD and Tourette’s Syndrome: Re-examining the Relationship” by Charley Mansueto, Ph.D. Also included is “Living with OCD”, a panel with those who deal with OCD every day. Sunday, October 28, 2007 at the Doubletree Hotel in Somerset, NJ. For more info on this event, go to: WWW.NJOCF.ORG

GSAPP ALUMNI CAREER CONTINUUM PROGRAM
The GSAPP Alumni Organization announces it’s 4th Career Continuum Program on November 16th from 4:00 - 6:30 pm at the University Inn and Conference Center, 178 Ryders Lane, New Brunswick, NJ. The theme for the program will be “Supervision: Insights from the Experts”.

Immediately following the program, the 2007 Peterson Prize will be awarded to Dr. Victor Carlson, followed by a gala reception from 6:30-8:00 pm with great food and wine.

This event is jointly sponsored by the GSAPP Alumni Organization and the Office of the Dean. It will be a wonderful opportunity to learn about supervision, ask questions of the presenters, and socialize with current students, alumni and faculty members.

Cost (includes gala reception) is just $5 for current GSAPP students, $15 for 2007 GSAPP Graduates, $20 for paid up Alumni Organization members, and $40 for all others.

(On-site registration will be $10 more on each of the above prices.)

Please send your check, payable to GSAPP, to: Arlene Miller, GSAPP, 152 Frelinghuysen Road, Piscataway, NJ 08854 by November 9th.

If you are not currently a member of the GSAPP Alumni Organization, you can join now by going to: http://www.alumni.rutgers.edu/join/member.shtml