Shooting Stars is a therapy group for adolescents in foster care that utilizes photography as a means of communication, identity formation, and relationship building. The group is run through the Foster Care Counseling Project and lead by Ewa Lavin and Lara Brodzinsky. The photo exhibit represents both a culmination of our group work as well as a celebration of self expression.

Come support the kids, all are welcome!

LICENSED AND SCHOOL CERTIFIED PSYCHOLOGIST POSITION AVAILABLE

I am looking for an independent contractor to provide clinical services on a fee for service basis. Required experience includes treating children, adolescents and their families (ages 3-18), and conducting psycho-educational evaluations of children and adolescents. A minimum availability of 15 clinical hours per week including at least 2 evenings is required.

We are a private clinical psychology practice serving Bucks County for over 25 years. The practice has grown significantly over the years with no managed care connections. We provide a full range of clinical services to children, adolescents, adults, couples and families. There are currently 6 clinical psychologists in the practice. I am looking for an additional licensed and school certified psychologist to join the practice.

Please feel free to view our website at www.drjeffreyfine.com.

You may contact Dr. Jeffrey Fine directly at 215-860-1144 ext.1 to further discuss the available position and/or send your C.V. to 4 Terry Drive, Suite 7, Newtown, PA 18940 or 7atrium@gmail.com.
