Job Postings

A Pre-Doctoral Forensic Psychology Internship in Child Maltreatment is available from July 2007 thru June 2008 at The Audrey Hepburn Children’s House at Hackensack University Medical Center. The Children’s House is designated as a Regional Child Abuse Diagnostic and Treatment Center by the State of New Jersey. The program resides in the Department of Pediatrics. The position affords the opportunity to conduct forensic psychological assessments, foster care screenings, individual and group therapy and therapeutic visitation within the family court with either victims of child maltreatment or parents or other caregivers responsible for their care. The Children’s House conducts internship seminars on a weekly basis in conjunction with a program of study in the Department of Pediatrics. Supervision is conducted by licensed psychologists in both individual and group formats.

The Department of Pediatrics at Hackensack University Medical Center and The Audrey Hepburn Children’s House are in the forefront of pediatric care given to child maltreatment victims. The Center provides direct service and consultation to the Division of Youth and Family Services, the Department of Children and Families, the Office of the Attorney General, local Prosecutors’ Offices, the Juvenile and Family Courts and self-referred families within the northern six (6) counties [Bergen, Hudson, Morris, Passaic, Sussex and Warren] in New Jersey. Stipend is competitive (typically $22,000) and accompanied by an excellent benefits package. The Children’s House is located in the town of Hackensack in Bergen County fifteen minutes west of New York City. Review of applications will begin immediately and continues until the position is filled. Pre-doctoral intern candidates should send curriculum vitae, statement of goals and clinical interests to James Cassidy, Psy.D., Psychologist II, Audrey Hepburn Children’s House, Hackensack University Medical Center, 30 Prospect Avenue, Hackensack, New Jersey 07601.

Questions & Submission for publication in the GSAPP Gazette should be sent to Johanna Rosa; email: jrosa@rci.rutgers.edu by noon on Wednesday. Fax: 732-445-4888
