UPCOMING EVENT

Join us for a celebration honoring Sandra Harris and Ken Schneider’s Retirement!!!

Sandy and Ken will be retiring from their academic positions at GSAPP on June 30. Fortunately, Sandra will continue in her role as Executive Director of the DDDC and Ken will teach a course or two at GSAPP.

To wish them well as they move into a new phase of their lives, we are inviting all faculty, staff and students to a late afternoon party in their honor. The extent of their contributions to GSAPP and Rutgers at large have been enormous.

When: May 23,
Time: 4-6pm
Where: University Inn and Conference Center
178 Ryders Lane
New Brunswick, NJ 08901

For directions, please go to http://univinn.rutgers.edu/.

Refreshments will be served.

If you would like to contribute towards a gift, please make checks payable to Veronica Reed by May 14, 2007. Cash donations are also accepted.

The event is being sponsored by the Dean’s Fund in appreciation of Ken and Sandy’s dedicated and devoted service to GSAPP over many years.

About the movie: Trembling Before G-d is an unprecedented feature documentary that shatters assumptions about faith, sexuality, and religious fundamentalism. Built around intimately-told personal stories of Hasidic and Orthodox Jews who are gay or lesbian, the film portrays a group of people who face a profound dilemma - how to reconcile their passionate love of Judaism and the Divine with the drastic Biblical prohibitions that forbid homosexuality. As the film unfolds, we meet a range of complex individuals - some hidden, some out - from the world's first openly gay Orthodox rabbi to closeted, married Hasidic gays and lesbians to those abandoned by religious families to Orthodox lesbian high-school sweethearts.

EXTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The New School's Counseling Services Program is offering a 2 ½ day/wk externship that offers a mix of seminars, supervision, team meetings, and lots of clinical work. We see both undergrad and grad students for individual, group and couple's therapy. We are hoping to take on two externs starting this Fall. We are accepting applications now.

Interested applicants should send a CV and cover letter to our training director, Jerry Finkelstein, PhD at finkelsj@newschool.edu.

POST-DOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP

Yale University School of Medicine, Department of Psychiatry
Division of Prevention and Community Research and The Consultation Center

The Division of Prevention and Community Research, Department of Psychiatry, Yale University School of Medicine has re-opened its search for applications to a two-year postdoctoral fellowship as part of a NIDA-funded research training program on the prevention of substance abuse. The individual will participate with other postdoctoral fellows in a mentor-based training program with core faculty.

Beginning between July 1 and September 1, 2007, one position is available with the fellow participating in two ongoing research projects.

The first project is a statewide behavioral health initiative for children, birth to 11 years, and their families who are involved in the statewide system of care for children experiencing social, emotional, and behavioral challenges. The initiative integrates three systems -- children’s behavioral health, education, and early childhood – and employs a multi-level evaluation that examines child and family outcomes, including youth and parental substance use/abuse.

The second project examines child, family, program, and service system risk and protective factors for safety, permanency, and well-being among maltreated and/or foster care children and youth in the system of care. Both research projects are conducted through a public-private partnership with the Rhode Island Department of Children, Youth, and Families and Yale University. Competitive candidates will have a Ph.D. in community, clinical, counseling, or developmental psychology; a strong background in quantitative analysis; and an interest in pursuing an academic career.

Interested applicants should forward a CV, representative manuscripts, a statement of interests and future goals, and three letters of recommendation to: Jacob K. Tebes, Ph.D., Acting Director, Division of Prevention and Community Research, Yale University School of Medicine, 389 Whitney Avenue, New Haven, CT 06511, or email materials to jacob.tebes@yale.edu. Reviews of materials will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Yale University is an Affirmative Action/Equal opportunity Employer. Women and minority group members are encouraged to apply.
JOB POSTINGS

Title: Staff Psychologist/Social Worker
Department: Counseling Center
Reports To: Director, Counseling Center
Position Band: AP28
Appointment: Full-time, 10 months

Description: The Skidmore College Counseling Center invites applications for a Staff Psychologist/Social Worker position. This is a full-time, 10 month appointment with a start date of August 13, 2007. The position involves providing short-term and, occasionally, longer-term individual psychotherapy; crisis intervention, including rotation in after-hours on-call coverage; psycho-educational programming; consultation to faculty, staff, and parents; leading at least one psychotherapy or support group per year; and participation in the Center’s multidisciplinary treatment team, as well as the larger division of Student Affairs. The successful applicant will also be involved in training the college’s Residential Life staff, and may have an opportunity to provide supervision to practicum trainees.

Qualifications: Candidates should possess a doctorate in Clinical or Counseling Psychology or a Master’s in Social Work; have completed a supervised internship; be licensed or license-eligible within 2 years as a psychologist or LCSW in New York State; have strong diagnostic and clinical skills as well as experience in working with a broad array of psychological, emotional, and developmental concerns; have experience in working with a traditional college-aged population; and have a demonstrated ability to work successfully with diverse populations including students of color, international students, and GLBT students. Expertise in working with eating disorders or substance abuse is not required, but would be a plus.

To Apply: Applicants should submit a letter of interest summarizing their relevant qualifications, a resume, and three letters of recommendation. Credential review will begin on April 15th, and will continue until the position is filled.

Send applications to: Attn: Julia Routbort, Ph.D.; Counseling Center Skidmore College; 815 North Broadway, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866
